Where Little Hearts Begin to Shine

Welcome to

LITTLE LAMPS

A joyful beginning for every child

Dear Parents,

Welcome to Little Lamps Pre-School - a place where childhood is celebrated, curiosity is nurtured, and every child is encouraged to shine.

At Little Lamps, we believe that education begins with love. Inspired by the teachings of Sadhu Vaswani and Dada J.P. Vaswani, our preschool offers a joyful environment where children develop confidence, compassion, creativity, and strong foundational skills.

Our aim is not only to prepare children for school, but to prepare them for life-with character, courage, curiosity, and kindness.

We look forward to partnering with you in this beautiful journey.

Warm Regards,
Miss Vanaja Nair, Headmistress - Little Lamps Pre-School

LITTLE LAMPS PROMISE

Every child is a little lamp, ready to shine.

At Little Lamps, we believe each child carries a unique light. Our preschool journey nurtures not only early learning, but also the values that help children grow into kind, confident, and joyful human beings.

The 4C Promise

Culture

Rooted in respect, tradition, and belonging.

Character

Building honesty, responsibility, and self-belief.

Courage

Encouraging curiosity, confidence, and expression.

Compassion

Growing empathy, kindness, and care.

VISION & MISSION

Guiding every little learner

Vision

To enable students to imbibe the four C's of Education; Culture, Compassion, Character and Courage; to inculcate love for their country, to impart value-based education, to revere all life, animate and inanimate, in keeping with the teachings of our revered Guruji, Sadhu Vaswani.

Mission

The school believes that life must have a spiritual orientation and promotes the practice of prayer, meditation and above all, living for others; the others are not apart from us; we all are a part of the One Whole.

“ Little hearts. Bright minds.
Boundless possibilities. ”
